

Zeta Phi D.C. Reunion

The Chapter at Clarkson University (ZΦ) held its 14th reunion of graduates from the classes of 1956 through 1963 this past summer in the greater Washington, D.C. area. Activities included visits to see the Capitol Steps (a political satire group), Mount Vernon, the National Museum of the Marine Corps and a day on "The Mall". The seventeen Brothers from all over the country combined with spouses and friends brought the total to over forty participants. At a dinner at the Officer's Club at Fort Belvoir, VA, the Alpha Chi Rho flag was passed to the Lewis Brothers, Jim and Starks, who will be hosting next year's reunion in the lower Hudson Valley.
