

“Membership from among those who are prepared to realize, in word and deed, the brotherhood of all men.” A bit cliché? Not really when you think about what our Fraternity teaches young men... leadership, civility, and integrity are just a few examples. Their out-of-classroom experience is just as important as what they learn in the textbooks. Sure they make mistakes! But nobody said the road to adulthood was easy.

This picture depicts our Brothers singing Amici after completing a friendly competition of flag football at this past year's Crow Bowl in Philadelphia. Living our Landmarks is just as important today as in the past. Give to the Alpha Chi Rho Educational Foundation. Your tax-deductible gift, no matter how large or small, will ensure that our Landmarks and traditions live on. In Word and Deed.
