Ryan Barck

On November 12, 2011 at the Temple-Ambler intramural fields in Ambler, PA, many Chapters came to test their skills in flag football at Crow Bowl 2011. There were many hard fought battles from all of the schools in attendance including La Salle, Kutztown, Albany, Geneseo, Ramapo, Robert Morris, and Drexel, the host Chapter. In the end it was the Drexel's best team versus Ramapo, with ultimateley Ramapo College securing their first ever Crowl Bowl championship with a 28-12 win. We are already accepting applications to host next years Crow Bowl so please call AXP Headquarters at 732 869 1895 or email hq@alphachirho.org for more information.
