Leadership Consultant

The Fraternity of Alpha Chi Rho invites applications for the position of Leadership Consultant. The Leadership Consultant is a member of the National Staff.

The Fraternity of Alpha Chi Rho was founded in 1895 at Trinity College in Hartford, Connecticut. Alpha Chi Rho is a national, men's, collegiate fraternity whose purpose is to enhance the lifelong intellectual, moral, and social development of our members through the guidance of our Landmarks. The National Staff has been charged with visiting each Chapter on an annual basis to provide hands-on advice and consulting geared toward improving Chapter operations. As current campus climates have changed, the role of the staff has also changed. Now it is crucial for the National Staff to provide programming and services for the advancement of the entire Fraternity. These men, the National Staff, meet the needs of our Brothers through teamwork, professionalism, and loyalty.

The Leadership Consultant will work to improve Chapter operations. This person will coordinate the relationship between the National Office and the Chapters. He will work with other staff members to ensure Chapters are receiving programs and services needed.

The Leadership Consultant is directly responsible to the CEO. Successful candidates will possess a Bachelor's degree, be a Brother in good standing, and have experience within his Chapter, campus IFC, or related organization. In addition, each candidate should demonstrate excellent written, oral, and interpersonal communications skills. A willingness to travel is key to success. Finally, each candidate should possess a desire to make major improvements to the Fraternity on a national level.

The maximum term of this position is two years. Working for the National Fraternity will provide great networking opportunities that could help you land that perfect job in the future. In addition, the experience you receive working on the National Staff adds marketable skills to your resume. A valid driver's license, car insurance and vehicle are required. Persons interested in applying for this position are asked to submit a cover letter, completed application and resume to:
